

Shiri Tintpulver

Shiri Tintpulver was born in 1993 in Israel.

She started to play cello when she was eight years old with prof. Hillel Zori.

This year Shiri started her studies in Hannover at the "Hochschule für Musik, Theater und Medien Hannover" (HMTMH) with prof. Leonid Gorokhov.

Shiri has got the "America-Israel foundation" since 2006. Also she has won the scholarship from the "Ronen foundation" and the "Nadya Steinberg foundation".

Shiri was taking part of "The David Goldman Programme for Outstanding Young Musician" (President is Murray Perahia).

During that program she took part in the "Young euro Classic" festival in Berlin.

Shiri studied at the "Thelma-Yellin high school of the arts". Last year she performed "Yizkor" by Ödön Pártos with the school orchestra. She also performed with the "Ha Sharon orchestra" the Saint-Saëns "Cello Concerto" and the Lalo's "Cello Concerto".

She attended master classes with Uzi Wiesel, Jonathan Mensson, Raphael Wallfisch and Rainer Zipperling.

This year Shiri won the 3rd prize of the "Ben Haim" competition.

The press reportet on Shiri in Germany, Israel and USA.